

Christina McGarry David

Quick Facts:

- Former legislative assistant to Rep. Mario Diaz-Balart, specializing in appropriations and funding policies

Christina David specializes in legislative policy and strategy, with a strong track record in building and executing federal government affairs strategies. With extensive experience on Capitol Hill, she brings deep expertise in navigating the federal funding process and creating champions.

Before joining the firm, Christina served as a legislative assistant to Rep. Mario Diaz-Balart, where she handled appropriations, health care, labor, judiciary, and education issues. She also worked for Rep. Doc Hastings, gaining broad policy experience. Christina holds a bachelor's degree in History and Politics from the University of Virginia.